PARIS, TRAVEL IN
THE 20s & 30s

Tuesday May 13, 2025, Guided visits and urban walks Paris, travel in the 20s & 30s

We offer you a day of visits with two routes representative of the 20s and 30s in Paris and the Paris region.

First of all, in the morning, a visit to the Musée des Années 30 in Boulogne Billancourt, a museum where all the big names who made French Art Deco are renowned.

In the afternoon, visit the Grands-Boulevards, transformed in the 1920s by post-Haussmanian works.

8:30 a.m.: Board the bus in front of Saint Lazare station / Journey to Boulogne-Billancourt

9:45 a.m.: Visit to Boulogne Town Hall, which is celebrating its 90th anniversary, and the administrative center that surrounds it. (Click for more information)

10:30 a.m.: Visit to the "Musée des années 30" ("1930s Museum") (Click for more information)

12:15 p.m.: Quick lunch in a brasserie near the 1930s Museum

1:30 p.m.: Return to Paris by bus passing through some emblematic Art Deco/Modernist places.

2:45 p.m.: Arrival in Paris, near by the Boulevards

3:00 p.m.: Walk on Boulevard Haussmann and Boulevard des Italiens. Visit the Art Deco and Art Nouveau parts of department stores, banks, cafés, cinemas, etc. (Click for more information)

5:30 p.m.: End of the walk in front of the hotel

If the number of participants exceeds 50 people, we will divide the group into two and alternate mornings and afternoons for the 2nd group.
